BENTLEY NEWS

The unsettled weather is delaying threshing, which should be general this week.

The new Meat Market, signified by A. W. Denant, adds to the appearance of the Damron & Thompson Block.

Chauncey Miles, of Tennant, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miles, for a few weeks.

Owing to the non-arrival of Miss Roscoe on Sunday, school is remaining closed today.

H. McCrosbie, former teacher, left for a dental course, at the Northwestern University, at Chicago, on Saturday.

Died, at his home, three miles N.W. of Bentley, on Sunday, the 1st, William McPherson. The deceased was born in Clark Co., Wisconsin, on April 19th, 1868.

and came to this district in the Spring of 1900, where his father and brothers preceded him. After living on his homestead a few years, he entered the lumbering business with his brothers, in which he has been engaged since that time. He was taken ill with a lingering disease last winter, and with the best medical attendance that could be secured in the county and Calgary he continued to fall till the end. He was a faithful, steady, and reliable worker, and esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a wife, a daughter in Calgary (Mrs. W. Sanbroke), and a daughter, Alice, at home; two sons, Elwin and Douglas, at home; a father, W. B. McPherson, of Minneapolis; four brothers, James and Jabez, of Bentley, and Charles and Albin, of Oregon; and one sister, Mrs. R. L. Homes, in New Mexico, to mourn his loss.

W. CARD OF THANKS.
Mrs. W. M. McPherson and family wish to thank the many friends that have so cheerfully assisted them in their recent bereavement and loss. (Signed) Mrs. W. M. McPherson, Elwin and Alice McPherson.

James and Jabez McPherson also wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the many friends who have assisted and offered their help to us during the long illness of one beloved brother. (Signed) James B. McPherson.

Rev. A. D. Millar, moved in home from Sylvan Lake, last week after a month's vacation at that place.

James McPherson took in Mr. and Mrs. Vigers and child, of Edmonton, from the Gulf Lake resort, on Saturday, the last of the Vacationists at that place.

C. F. Damron and B. E. Williams are hauling off a car of lumber, from Lacombe, for their new buildings, Messrs. Hay and Webb, of Calgary, who have the contract for the erection of the C. F. Damron residence arrived last week, and are now busy on the job.

They say that B. E. W. is going to build at once.

J. H. Damron and F. W. Thorp accompanied by their wives, left for Calgary and Banff by auto, on the 30th.

Threshing will commence in the Valley this week, if the weather is favorable.

Hugh McCrosbie leaves the Bentley school, at the end of the week, and starts for Chicago, where he is entering the Northwestern University for a course in Dentistry.

Miss Helen M. Roscoe of Hayter, Alberta, has accepted the school here, for the remainder of the term, and will arrive and resume the duties next Monday.

Dr. T. R. Laughbaum, received word that his father had a stroke of paralysis and left for his home in Ohio on the 16th.

Cattle buyers are scouring the country districts these days.

Mrs. L. H. Bullock moved in from the farm, on Monday last.

Miss Doll Roloff gave a party to her girl friends of Bentley, on Wednesday night, 30th. Those present were: Florence Millar, Doris Taylor, Connie Taylor, and Alice Bligh. The evening was spent in amusements, and a nice supper served at 8 p. m. after which they dispersed for their homes, convinced that Miss Roloff was an excellent hostess.

The talked-of high school for Bentley seems to meet favor, on all sides, and will likely be in operation, before the end of the year.

D. B. Palmer, famous sportsman of Bentley, was induced to take a joy-ride with a Ponoka outfit, to Rimby and back on Tuesday last week. At present he is a nervous wreck, and is trying to collect his mind enough to get a suit started against Jack Damron, who induced him to take the trip.

He reports (having made 50 miles per hour, over some of the worst parts of the road; some rear end collisions, and a few loop-the-loops, kept him interested in his own safety.

He arrived home about midnight in a famishing state, mind, morally and physically. Brad says "Never again."

We are sorry to report Mrs. Arthur Jaffray as under the weather. She was dismounting from her horse when the saddle slipped, giving her a nasty fall. She is under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Geo. Ferozie, nee Jaffray, is visiting in New Aberdeen at present.

Last week one of Jim Strachan's boys nearly visited the "Happy Land" and sang a song at Sunday School. He was out duck hunting, and indulged in the time-honored foolishness of climbing through a fence and pulling the gun after him. Of course the hammer caught something and the gun went off. It took a slight sliver off his hand, but not a few pellets in his hide, but nothing of a dangerous nature.

A number of the younger children here are reported as suffering from cholera infantum. Perhaps the unexpected summer weather unsettled their little insides.

Some unknown person visited Bill Baillie's granary on Saturday night, either with the intention of stealing or to see if there was any grain on hand.

He was particularly lucky in the night he chose, as Bill happened to be out of shells for either his shot gun or 22. That is how the person got away with a whole skin. He now has a full line of buck-shot and 22 lins, and a few loop-the-loops, kept him interested in his own safety.

Mr. McKenzie, cattle buyer, from Calgary, was through here last week for the second time, and brought a lot of cattle.

Elvin undertakes to escape from a 50-foot rope, and has issued a standing challenge that he will forfeit $10.00 to the Patriotic Fund if he fails to escape from any regulation police handcuff. No one in the Rimby district should miss this opportunity of seeing the Great Elvin.

A Rimbey Concert will be given in the Rimbey Town Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 13th, by the Ponoka Quartette and Ponoka Orchestra. The program will include patriotic marches, quartettes, duets, solos, and readings. Mr. John Blue will speak on behalf of the Fund. Proceeds in aid of Patriotic Fund. Admission 25c; reserved seats 35c. Plan of hall and reserved seats may be booked at Putland & Thorp's and C. W. Jackson's stores. It is hoped the house will be crowded on the occasion.

The concert at Rimbey, on the 10th of Oct. promises fair to be one of the most successful in its history, as it is hoped that the Ponoka Patriotic Troupe will have with them Leslie Elvin, Alberta's prince of handcluffs, who gives one of the most sensational handcluff acts ever seen in the province.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS
It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic illness and often shortens life.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Gin Pills
FOR THE KIDNEYS

From all parts of the world we receive words of praise for Gin Pills as the great remedy for kidney troubles. The following is from Jamaica where this little white box is a big help.

"I was a clerk in a store in Jamaica but had to give up my position on account of kidney trouble. I purchased one box of Gin Pills from a local Druggist and before it was all sold I was entirely better and able to return to my work. I recommended them to a friend who was also in a similar condition and he tried them with the same good results."

"I will tell you I tried many remedies in Jamaica before I got your Gin Pills."

Terms very truly,

TWO LONG YEARS HE SUFFERED

"Fruit-a-lives" Made Him Feel As If Walking On Air

OSHELBA, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.
"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-lives make you feel like walking on air.' This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends!"

For Our Soldier Boys

The ladies of Lacombe will provide Christmas presents for all the Lacombe boys in the trenches, and, wounded, and toward a fund for this purpose, are giving a dance in the Comet Theatre on Friday evening next. It is the intention of the ladies to give a hand made pair of socks, filled with tobacco, chewing gum, and other useful articles, to every Lacombe boy at present fighting for the Empire in France and other parts of the world, and the way the citizens are helping out by purchasing the socks shows that everyone's heart is with the boys in khaki, and if the boys do not have a happy Christmas, in spite of the war, it will not be because of lack of interest. If anyone deserves recognition at Christmas—this Christmas especially—the boys in the trenches do, and if the fund is not augmented by at least four hundred dollars, we will be greatly mistaken.

Lynch's Orchestra will furnish the music, and everyone in town and country are invited. If you do not care to dance, your money will be acceptable anyway.

WILL PAY PRIZE MONEY

With his usual energy, Capt. Evans President of the agricultural Society has completed all details in connection with the late exhibition, and on Saturday next all prize winners can get their prize money by calling at the office of the late Alex. Cameron, Next to Denike's Jewelry Store. This also applies to the prize winners in the Seed Fair and Standing Grain Fields, Competition reports that the Society is in good standing this year, despite the very adverse conditions, and looks forward to better things next year.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

Seats will go on sale on Wednesday at Creghton's Drug Store for "Somewhere in France," the great Military Drama which is scheduled to appear at the Comet Theatre for one night only, Tuesday, Oct. 10th.

Much interest is being evidenced in local theatre-going circles over the coming engagement, as no phrase of the present day is as oft repeated or as much discussed as "Somewhere in France," and the fact that the scenes of the play are laid in Canada and "Somewhere in France" gives an added interest in the production. For instance, the realistic battle scene which takes place in the second act, fairly bristles with action and the fact that an actual communication trench, descriptions of which have come from many of our boys at the front, will be shown in complete detail, also a factor of exceptional interest.

Managers Hoode & Johnston report that they have had a number of mail order reservations to date, as well as countless enquiries, and indications point to a record attendance.

AT THE REX

Never before in the history of this popular place of amusement has there been such a programme presented to the people of Lacombe and district as that to be presented for the balance of this week. Look over the following list of players and plays to be presented.

Blanche Sweet in "The Captive" (not Wednesday). She needs no introduction, and the house is sure to be crowded to its capacity.

Mignon Anderson in the great five-part Mutual Masterpicture, "The Mill On the Cross" (Thursday) evening. Don't fail to see this screen version of George Eliot's famous story. If you are a lover of the beautiful in scenery and enjoy seeing an actress worth while you will attend the Rex tomorrow evening.

Charlie Chaplin will be with us again on Friday evening in another of his great two-reel masterpieces, "The Tramp." The house was crowded twice on his previous appearances, and it is safe to predict even greater number next Friday evening. Two full shows will be given, the first at 8 o'clock sharp and the second at 10 o'clock.

Marguerite Charles in "Helen of the North" Saturday and Monday evening. She always draws bumper houses, so why go into details. Suffice it to say that it is the equal of anything produced by this favorite star of the screen. See it on either of the above evenings.

GRACE METHODIST CHURCH
Thanksgiving services will be held on Sunday, to be conducted by the minister, Rev. W. Hollingsworth. Subjects—11 a.m., "Praise Despite Everything"; 7 p.m., "Wanted, Harvesters."

Who Should Enlist

As the war goes on and personal tragedies multiply among families and friends, demand grows greater for some form of government supervision or registration of citizens who are in the military service. This province, indeed, the entire Dominion is full of men who are eager to serve in the best way possible. They may not be, indeed they usually are not young men. They hold in many cases positions of responsibility and trust. They have duties to the public, wellfare in civil life that are continually impressed upon them as reasons why they should not offer for service at the front. They are not reluctant to offer, but they owe a divided duty and do not know in which direction to turn. Even apart from the question of service at the front, they feel a desire for some form of public service which has not opened to them and which they would eagerly undertake if offered.

There are other kinds of men, yes and women, who are looking for some guidance in these days of stress and trial, looking for someone in authority to tell them what they should do to make themselves useful to their country in what form, if any, they may offer themselves up for their country's good. There are others again, young in a strong man, without responsibilities or heavy obligations, who have not offered simply because they have not thought deeply enough. One sees them on the streets, in public places and recreation grounds, and wonders how they feel when they go home at night and reach that hour in which everyone faces only himself.

To these, and others, an enrollment of some kind for national service, undertaken and controlled by the government, would be a godsend. More than two years have passed since Canada threw her fate upon the scale of war. The youth and middle aged of the country have done nobly in the ranks of volunteers. Surely by now the government might have organized a better and more equitable system of public service than that which suited us in old days. Surely the government will not much longer delay the inauguration of some scheme by which the people may at their highest usefulness in public service.

Cardinal Mercier

Patience Belongs to the German

Cardinal Mercier is a thorn in the side of the Germans. He cannot be appeased. He is the only man in Belgium who, with regard to the German occupation, has not been silenced. On July 21, the 60th anniversary of Belgian independence, the cardinal, addressing a vast audience of Belgians in Brussels, in the presence of General von Bissing, the German governor-general, predicted the approach of the day of deliverance, and urged his people to renew their courage, their faith in Belgium free from the foreign invader.

He praised the German officers who allowed him to continue. As long as he did not urge insurrection, the German authorities, he said, had listened to his forecast of the triumph of the Belgian people. He said that he had listened to the people whose thoughts he was uttering. He said that he had listened to the people whose thoughts he was uttering. He said that he had listened to the people whose thoughts he was uttering.

Tautonic Opinion Weakens

German Editor Claims People Don't Know What War Is For

The London Times says that Friedrich Naumann publishes in the current number of his weekly paper, Die Zukunft, an extraordinary article on the weakening of German popular opinion about the war, and article of considerable interest. He says that there are people enough who no longer ask why we are still fighting.

The necessity of what is happening is questioned, he says, and the feeling that this abnormal state of things may cease "dims the eyes to the inevitable character of events. To this is then added the old and eternal mistrust of the small for the great, and it is said: "There people at the top avoid the war and that is why we have to endure it."

It was said lately by a soldier who was in the war was taken up by the Landsturm. I know him well, and I know by the nature of his calling he knows the ways of thinking of the simple people. He said to me: "I must be explained to the people who are still fighting, because they do not know."

Two years ago all these people knew, but as they read the newspapers irregularly, have little knowledge of geography, and have no training in historical thought, even at the beginning they grasped only a general impression of the situation.

Meanwhile, all that has for them returned to a state of confusion and bewilderment. Now they are mentally helpless in the face of the sacrifices of this long war. Hence the necessity of a new agitation of the Liebknecht type to find its way into the very army."

Why People Feel Depressed in the Cold Weather. Why is it that people feel depressed and languid so very much in the cold weather? It is because the cold of winter drains blood from the surface of the body and the blood is then forced to the internal organs. The effect which the milk has produced has more than justified the claims which the Institute made for it.

It is claimed that the stimulating effect of milk is especially noticeable when given to soldiers just before a battle or a dangerous charge, and it is a well known fact that the troops when in great fatigue. The advantage of the milk stimulus over the alcohol stimulus is that there is no bad after-effects, and the keenness of the senses is in no way impaired nor the coolness of judgment affected.

The knowledge that milk is a stimulant of no mean force will come as something of a shock to those who consider that the word "stimulant" is synonymous with all things mild and peaceful. It is somewhat difficult to believe that the milk of a cow is so potent a patient and gentle cow should contain such a potent of forceful stimulant. But the fact is that it is so.

At this season of the year, buildings are usually thoroughly dry. When the pores of the wood are filled with water, or have only dried out at the surface, the oil in the paint cannot enter. The paint practically seals up a certain amount of moisture in the wood and thus does not allow the wood to breathe. With dry wood, the pores are open and empty to receive the oil and thus most effectively preserve the wood.

Two bankers were talking about a man who had failed. "And did poor Joe accept his failure like a man?" asked the first. "Exactly like a man," the second answered. "He blam'd it on his extravagant wife."

A great deal of praise has been done in the spring and early summer, principally because people like to have their hair look well at a season when they can be out of doors and when nature gives a freshly painted hair a most beautiful condition. It should be remembered, however, that there are advantages to fall parting.

A Glory to the Allies

Spirit of Kitchener Survives Among the Valiant Troops Which He Formed

Lord Kitchener was a national glory to our Allies on account of his genius as a soldier, and a military organizer. By his high, strong, and upright character, and by the incomparable services which he rendered to his country in many fields, he had become a sort of incarnation of England and her immense prestige. The grave of Kitchener is one of the most illustrious that have been opened since the beginning of the war. The man is no more, but his spirit survives in the valiant troops which he formed. Animated by this far-seeing, resolute, and indomitable spirit, they will march with us to the inevitable victory—Paris, Le Caumont.

Milk As A Stimulant

French Soldiers in the Trenches Are Given Milk Only as a Stimulant

One of the most recent discoveries of the Pasteur Institute of Paris has to do with stimulating qualities of milk. While milk has always been known to be a tonic and known to be exceptionally rich in food value, it was not until the Pasteur Institute conducted a series of conclusive experiments that the stimulus in milk became a known quantity. For a number of months, milk has been given to the French soldiers in the trenches and to many of them it has been found to be a tonic and known to be exceptionally rich in food value, it was not until the Pasteur Institute conducted a series of conclusive experiments that the stimulus in milk became a known quantity.

High Cost of Living

The Staff of Life and Its Upward Tendency These Days

The high price of wheat conveyed an ominous significance to the housewife. A grocer predicted a few days ago that before winter set in, the cost of flour would be $3.50 a barrel, formerly it was $2.00 to $2.50. This will be more than the average cost of wheat $10,000 for these grades last year. But the advance will come closer home to working people than any other present result of war.

In spite of present prosperity there are still large sections of our population for whom bread is the main article of subsistence. To great numbers of recent immigrants meat is almost a prohibited luxury. They may pick up some remnants and bones cheap, but only for use as an appetizer. Bread and soup are the mainstay. A touch of onions or other pungent vegetable may be used to give the meal some twang.

A well-seasoned soup has a surprising effect to give an otherwise dull meal some flavor and makes it seem more substantial than it really is. With this in mind, it is really no wonder that this country will grow along for days on their loaves baked after the foreign manner.

Wheat bread, of course is food of the most substantial character. People of indoor life and finicky appetites would not eat enough of it for full nourishment. The manual laborer, hungry from his fatiguing work, asks it down with avidity. It came from the old country here, they have learned to eat it without butter. The present high wheat prices will again encourage the farmer to stuff his pockets with the staple grain and borrow money to pay his help. But the wastes of trench life are great, the demand for wheat flour is enormous, and the Canadian workman may pay high for his loaf while the war lasts.

It has certainly been a great year for the backyard garden. The few square rods put into potatoes will go far to reduce the flour bill and provide a nourishing substitute.

Taxation of Land Values

The day has long since passed when the doctrines of Henry George could be ridiculed or accused as unworthy of serious attention. They have found much acceptance in Europe, and particularly in Great Britain, where there is now a widespread feeling in favor of the taxation of "unearned increments."

In Australia, the feeling has been crystallized into legislation some years ago when Mr. Lloyd George was Chancellor of the Exchequer. In Australia, the feeling has been crystallized into legislation some years ago when Mr. Lloyd George was Chancellor of the Exchequer.

United States is now exporting $75,000,000 worth of sugar yearly. Before the war, the yearly export was valued at about $50,000,000.

Gets Attention--

First, because of its wonderfully delicious flavor--

Then, again, because it is ready to eat—fresh and crisp from the package.

But the big "get attention" quality is its abundance of well-balanced, easily digestible nourishment.

For sound health, every table should have its daily ration of Grape-Nuts.

Field Competition

Lacombe, Sept. 29, 1918.

Editor Western Globe:
Dear Sir,—In reply to Mr. Rasmussen's letter in last week's issue, I would like to say that I am sorry I missed the time he arrived in Lacombe, and hereby apologize for the same.

When A. J. Cameron introduced us I asked him where he came from, and he said from Wetaaki-win and that he came down
"this morning." Naturally, I thought he must have come on the 11:20 train. However, that only makes 24 hours difference,
as they didn't leave Lacombe until 9 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Rasmussen, in his letter, explains the score card. Does he wish us to believe that he judged those fields according to that score card. He says he "gave preference to fields that had the largest heads and were in the most advanced stage of maturity." The score under that heading is a possible 35. He gives the first 30 and the second 29 1/2 third and fourth, 28 each. This is a point on a score card where there is room for difference of opinion, so we will let that part of it go.

Now, as to the weed question:
who ever said anything about the weeds on the different parts of the farm? What I said was that there were more weeds on one acre of the first prize barley than there was on the ten acres
I showed. Don't try to get away from that.

How did Mr. Rasmussen arrive at his decision regarding weeds, with a possible score of 30. Giving the second prize 27 and the fourth 26, which they are both entitled to, the first prize would have been scored vastly higher in proportion at 10, thereby eliminating it from the contest, as it ought to have been.

To bring this business to a head I'll just make a proposition to Mr. Rasmussen.

The first and second prize barley will be threshed, nine won't,
so that the first and fourth fields
will not be in the same relative shape to judge. I said there were more weeds on one acre of the first prize barley than on the ten acres I showed. I'll put up $10 or $20 against Mr. Rasmussen's $10 or $20. The loser's
$10 or $20 to go to the Red Cross or Patriotic Fund, that there is fifteen times the amount of weed seeds in the first prize barley than there is in the second prize barley, and forty times the amount of wild oats, the only condition attached to this being that this offer be taken up immediately so that it can be definitely decided before the crops in question lose their identity; i.e., before they are threshed, and if this is taken up that all outlets for weed seed in the threshing machines be closed and everything goes in the wagon.

Replying to A. J. Cameron's letter of the same time, I would like to say that I have only spoken to two exhibitors about this matter, and I'm sorry, A.
J., but I have to flatly contradict you. The field the judge never went into was Biglands & Threlkell's, and J. W. Biglands is authority for the statement that the judge never entered the grain. He says: "If he calls getting through the fence into the field, the grain was in 'entering the field' he did that, but he just walked not more than ten yards
by the side of it, and never went into it."

I notice Mr. Rasmussen does not deny my statement, and he ought to know.

J. W. Biglands also says that the judge was not there two minutes.

The owner of the second prize
barley is authority for the statement that A. J. Cameron never was near his field, consequently he doesn't know whether the judge entered it or not. The owner admits he entered it, walked in at one place and out at another, and he says he is sure he didn't cover 75 yards going in and out and that he doesn't think he was there two minutes.

These two fields were judged in four minutes. A. J. thinks if a man can't travel 100 miles and judge 19 fields of grain in 17 hours there is something wrong
with either the judge or the car.
There surely must have been something wrong with the car, because 19 fields at two minutes
each is only 38 minutes. Say, Alex, you must have had an admiral time with that car the balance of the 17 hours. What was wrong with her, anyway?

It's quite possible that in another year flying machines will be as common as motor cars are now, and it would be much easier judging them "flying" and possibly just as good.

Yours truly,
J. M. SOUTHWARD.

oughly aluminized, and they economize nearly every bit
